Feeling of impotence, negative ideas, failure. Before a headache, an ibuprofen; Before a discomfort in the neck, a hot water bag. As a discipline, the Bioneuro -Employment proposes to seek these causes of the order of the emotional to be able to lid more effectively and efficiently the treatment of the disease suffered by a certain patient. What is the Bioneuroemoción? For biodecoding all diseases that affect the body have an emotional and not necessarily physical origin. Actually, these diseases are one of the main causes of death in the world. Some symptoms may have emotional origin and bioneuro -emotion seeks to find those causes once more, it is important to lembrar that bioneuroemoción is not constituted as a treatment or as a way to improve the symptoms that shave the body. Bioneuroemoción tries to identify the emotional causes of diseases, it is important to consider that the dictionary of the Bioneuroemoción behaves as a guide and as an approximation to the subject. While biodecoding can continue to continue to seek the origin of the conditions, in the institute that bears his name they no longer use it. That is not used to make a diagnosis, because each person is unique and therefore, it is also its way of expressing her emotions. There is also a broad vision of the application of biodecoding, which can be used to apply in other lumbs of life, not only in physical health. For all these reasons it is important to be cautious when read about these currents, which many times say they have the answer to everything and can be dangerous for those who are sick. Sin embargo, this leads to completely deja de side el aspect emotional que, en muchos cases, puede ser involucrado en un dolor. El o los simtos aparezcan según cómo se viva y atraviese el conflicto. La respiración comunicación con el ambiente y con los demás, por eso problemas en ella significan miedo a inspirer la vida. Some are dedicated exclusively to the biología, the sí losntomas the diseases que una persona puede generar en su cuerpo physical, y Procuran el conflict emotional que lo generó. Within the precursors of this technique and sus derivaciones se puede refere alemán Ryke Hamer, a Anne Schützenberger (initiadora de la "Psicogenealogía"), a Christian Fleche (de la escuela french Biodecodage, the "biological biodecoding"), y a Enric Corbera (el famous thinker that sends since the Bioneuroemo). La bioneuroemoción es una propuesta de la medicina alternative que intenta find el origen metaphysical de las infermedades, o su significa emo emo, to search from allí la forma de sanar. Puede originate bronquitis chronic o enfisema y su causa principal es el tabaquismo. Es decir que explica dónde está, a criterio de esta rama de la medicina alternativa, el origen de una patología y apunta a pode prevent su aparición from del control. Su popularización estuvo en manos de un matriculacion español, quien lo definió como un method para descifrar el mensaje emotional de las enfermedades de del conocimiento de la historia transgenerational. It is important to keep in mind that the Bioneuroemoción does not replace other types of therapies or treatments, but well that complements them. Enric Corbera is the thought that popularized the rmino biodescodification The name of the Spanish birds that popularized the biodescodification is Enric Corbera. The flu is a disease that, in most cases, does not represent greater complications, except for people violation, such as older adults. The professional explains it, who is also a teacher: "We make symbolic repair, juristic meditations and rhizomatic constellations, where the consultant configures his family and his problem with objects, family photos and very many. deeply injured. Now, the bioneuro -emotion also has another field of work and it is just transgenerational relationship that may be at the beginning of a pain or a disease. Not negative, its application turned out to be very mechanical and reductionist, forgetting the particularities of each individual and treating each case as unrepentable and unrepeatable. That is the goal of the bioneuroemoción. Angina or hypertensive are some of the conditions included in this group. This is what that the Bionurioción proposes to study and take it to the maximum level. All that information has been collected in a dictionary, which in turn has had various modifications throughout the years and the Time that biodecodification extends as a discipline. The bad hits (for example, smoking) and obesity also contribute to the development of these diseases. Overweight and obesity can be given, in the eyes of the biodecoding, by a different conflit series. These people who do not listen to their hearts, They only get excited for reason and mind, they end up suffering from heart disease. Not being able to breathe means a deep affliction or depression and feeling of not being worthy to live fully. This is what is known technically as biodecoding. They say that "repents that foods in Sâ" engender. The largest amount of them is divided between the five frequent types, which are the pulmonary cader, the hepatic center, the colorectal type, the gister and the breast. The hull itself is a multicausal disease. The World Health Organization (WHO) navy that there are about 400 million people suffering from it globally. Dissus: Cardiovascular, kidney problems, etc. The origin of biodecoding has appeared in the world for a few years. Is that why the dictionary can be used as an entry port for the Bioneuroemoción theme? The diseases that can affect the body are many. Obesity is one of the most frequent pathologies in the world in general, biodecoding explains that obesity responds to feelings of fear and disprotection. The origin of this disorder, according to biodecoding, can be a situation that anger and causes conflict and mental disgust and even weakness in the immune system. However, there may be other origins, such as: genic factors. And not just involved, but it may even become the cause. The Bioneuro Employment Dictionary, which is known as the Bioneuroemoción dictionary, is precisely a list of all the diseases that can affect the body and what each of them means. To theOf the people, it is common to have pain, disease or discomfort in the body and try to resolve it with some medicine or with fanatic stages. According to biodescodification, those who suffer from it may have desires of love that are not able to accept, do not recognize their feelings to open to love. What this means? These people may trust the possibility of avoiding side effects of conventional treatments and cure (something that usually does not happen). All the flu, at some point in his life, had or has flu, because it is one of the most frequent circulating Várus. There are many people who report having a consequence of fanatic problems of emotional problems. These are more frequent diseases around the world and, in turn, the causes of bioneurhemocyn. silent killers. Then the tools for accessing "deputy" are private and depend on the therapist's line. The emotional factor is very strong in this regard and, according to biodecoding, Citr usually appears in people who have some old resentment or emotional problems that drag themselves from the past and have not resolved. Solidion, so, sadness, rejection. But it is not the sake. Some call it summary, others say that the body feels what one suffers emotionally and sentimentally. He simply intends to find the emotional cause of affection, pain or disease and face his solution from there, but always as a complement to medical and traditional treatments.
